

12th National Native American Women's Conference

Join colleagues from around the country for a fun and informative conference to discuss issues affecting Native American women in the workplace. World class presenters will lead workshops on a wide variety of topics to help you succeed and excel in today's challenging workplace.

Workshop Topics Include:

- The Art of Communicating Well
- Dealing With Difficult People
- Sexual Harassment Prevention in the Tribal Workplace
- Leadership Styles: A Woman's Perspective
- Native American Women's Values
- Networking
- Team-Work (case studies)
- Giving and Receiving Criticism
- Marketing Oneself
- Gender Traps and Jealousy in the Workplace
- Women and Men: Partners At Work
- Managing Time and Stress
- Talking Circle

Gathering of Nations Pow Wow begins in Albuquerque on April 22!

www.gatheringofnations.com

APRIL 21~22, 2010 Sandia Resort and Casino

Who Should attend: Tribal Council Members, BIA Employees, Tribal Court Employees, Managers, Casino Employees, School Administrators & Teachers, Business Owners, Health Care Professionals, Tribal Employees, Child Care Workers . . .

FOR INFORMATION CALL CHRISTINE BECKER AT (505) 967-5086
